Children's Literacy Tutoring Programs in the Twin Cities Metro Area

Organization	Program Description(s)	Contact(s)	How to Get Involved
Minneapolis Public Schools*+	<ul> <li>Early Literacy Tutoring Program: Serves K-3 during school to assist with new literacy curriculum. The Early Literacy Tutoring program promotes inclassroom tutoring by working with small groups of students, rather than pulling students out of class for individual tutoring. This method ensures that students do not miss out on key instructional time. Tutors also play a major role in supporting the teacher by helping students stay engaged in classroom work.</li> <li>K-12 Classroom Volunteers: K-12 tutors provide additional support to students as they acquire academic, social, and cultural skills. Volunteers work one-to-one or in small groups of students with homework help, reading, writing and math skills under the guidance of our teachers. Volunteers are able to join the classroom at any point during the school year.</li> </ul>	Kaylie Burns Gahagan, Volunteer Coordinator Kaylie.BurnsGah agan@mpls.k12. mn.us volmps.k12.mn.u s 612.401.3736	Fill out an application at: http://volmps.mpl s.k12.mn.us/
	Locations: Various throughout Minneapolis     School District
Saint Paul Public Schools Foundation+	The Saint Paul Public Schools Foundation matches you with a great volunteer tutoring experience. Volunteer tutoring opportunities include both nonprofit organizations and local schools. Community-based Partners: ACES After School @ Central, Breakthrough Twin Cities, CommonBond Communities, East Side Learning Center, Hmong American Partnership, Keystone Community Services, Project for Pride in Living, Project SPIRIT, Rock Star Supply Co., Saint Paul Public Libraries, West 7th Community Center School-based Partners: Battle Farnsworth Lower and Upper, Highland Park Junior High, Horace Mann Elementary, Humboldt Secondary School, Ramsey Middle School, Riverview Elementary, Saint Anthony Park Elementary, Washington Technology Magnet For more information, visit: http://sppsfoundation.org/	Ellen Nikodym 651-325-4205 tutor@sppsfound ation.org	Fill out an application at: http://sppsfoundat ion.org/volunteer
Saint Paul Public Library*+	Read With Me: Connects students in primary grades with reading tutors. Meet one-on-one for one hour/week after	Wendy Neurer, Volunteer Coordinator	Contact: Wendy Neurer wendy.neurer@ci.

	school hours including weekends	wondy nownand a	stroul mr. us
	school hours including weekends.	wendy.neurer@ci	stpaul.mn.us
	Reading to Achieve:	.stpaul.mn.us	651-266-7420
	One-to-one tutoring for students in grades 4-8.	651-266-7420
	Homework Center: Serves learners of all ages by tutoring one-on-one for homework help.
	For more information, visit:
	http://www.sppl.org/about/volunteers
	Locations: Various throughout Saint Paul
Bloomington	Classroom Assistant:	Sue Martell,	Fill out an Schools*	Assist teachers in the classroom by working with	Placement	application at:
	students one-on-one or in small groups with reading	Specialist,	http://www.bloomi
	or math.	Volunteer	ngton.k12.mn.us/c
	Homework Connection:	Connection	ommunity-
	Help students with homework, math facts and	smartell@blooming	alumni/volunteer-literacy activities after school at elementary & middle	ton.k12.mn.us	opportunities/e-12-school buildings.	952-681-6293	volunteer-
	Family Homework Connection at Oxboro Library:		connection/applica
	Assist students with homework on Tuesdays 5:30-		tion-process
	7:30 PM in the Oxboro Library community room.		or contact
	Westwood Reading Buddy:		Sue Martell,
	Meet with students one-on-one weekly to work on		Placement
	reading skills while building a positive student adult		Specialist, relationship.		Volunteer
	Valley View Rocking Reader:		Connection
	Read one-on-one to five Kindergarten students each week.		smartell@bloomi
	ESL tutors:		ngton.k12.mn.us
	Work with students who need assistance with spoken		952-681-6293 and written English. Knowledge of a foreign language is not required.
	Basic Skills Tutor: Reinforce academic learning, review homework assignments and help develop study and organizational skills. Meeting during the school day or after school.
	Hope For Tomorrow Mentor: Mentors spend one morning a month, October through May, guiding selected students from Oak Grove Middle School and Valley View Middle School in activities to develop confidence and explore opportunities for a successful future.
People	Evening Children's Tutor:	Mallory Haugen,	Fill out an
Serving	Be a positive influence on elementary aged school	Volunteer &	application at:
People*+	children by assisting with homework and educational	Events	http://peopleservi
r cohie. +	activities.	Coordinator ngpeople.org/how
	M – W & every other Th: 5:30 – 8pm	mhaugen@people	-to- balp/waluntaar/ind
	Children's Activity Assistant:	servingpeople.org	help/volunteer/ind
	Help our staff facilitate age appropriate games, crafts	612-277-0256	ividual-volunteer-and group activities with children ages 5 – 17. M –Th: 5:30 – 8pm & F: 5:30-7pm (additional summer hours 1 – 3pm, M-F) Weekends: 1 – 3pm Daytime Early Childhood Development Program Assistant: Assist our Children's Center staff in either our Infant and Toddler room (6 weeks – 3 years) or our Preschool room (3 years – Kindergarten). Monday – Friday: 8:30 am – 4:30 pm (shift times: 8:30 am – 12:30 pm, 12:30 pm – 4:30 pm, 11:30 am – 1:30 pm, 2:30 pm – 4:30 pm). For more information, visit: http://peopleservingpeople.org/how-to-help/volunteer/		opportunities/

Project for	Location: 614 Third Street South     Minneapolis, MN 55415     School Year Programs:     Dertrographin Academy: After School Program (ASP);	Anna Preus	Fill out an
Pride in Living*	<ul> <li>Partnership Academy - After School Program (ASP):</li> <li>Partnership Academy is a charter elementary school serving students in grades K-5. The after school program focuses on helping kids build academic skills, gain confidence and form positive relationships. Volunteers work one-on-one and in small groups with students in grades 1-5, in a fun and engaging, teacher-led environment. Most of the students in the program are bilingual in English and Spanish, so tutoring is a great way to practice your Spanish skills, although Spanish proficiency is certainly not required!</li> <li>Youth Literacy Tutors:</li> <li>Volunteer to work 1:1 with students to build literacy skills, help with homework and have fun! Training &amp; supervision provided. Tuesdays &amp;/or Thursdays 5:30-7:30PM, Oct-May.</li> <li>Locations: PPL housing locations in New Hope, S Minneapolis and St Paul</li> <li>Collaborative Village Initiative Mentor:</li> <li>Become a mentor for a student transitioning out of long-term homelessness. Help them build confidence, and grow socially and academically while having fun! Time commitment is 3-4 hours/week, Oct-May.</li> <li>Location: 2020 Eliot Ave S Minneapolis 55404</li> <li>Homework 'n' Hoops Tutor:</li> <li>Community Center based mentoring/tutoring program for grades 2-6th in South Mpls. Help kids</li> </ul>	anna.preus@ppl- inc.org 612-455-5111	application at: www.ppl- inc.org/how-to- help/volunteer or contact: Anna Preus anna.preus@ppl- inc.org 612-455-5111

	<ul> <li>learn to set goals and also have fun! Time commitment is 2-4 hours/week, Oct-May. Mon., Tues. &amp;/or Wed. (pick 2 nights), 5:30-7:30PM.</li> <li>Schedule: 1 night/week from Feb-May <ul> <li>Location: 305 East 77th St. Richfield</li> </ul> </li> <li>PPL Scholars <ul> <li>A one-on-one tutoring and mentoring program for students in grades Pre-K-6th living in affordable and supportive housing through PPL. Right now the greatest need is for volunteers to work on school readiness activities with Pre-K students. Locations in St. Paul. Schedule: T/Th from 5:30-7:30PM.</li> </ul> </li> <li>For more information, visit: http://www.ppl-inc.org/how-to-help/volunteer/</li> </ul>
East Side Learning Center*	ESLC provides free one-on-one reading tutoring for St. Paul students who read below grade level and are unable to get help elsewhere. Children are tutored three to four times a week during 30 - 50-minute sessions at four sites with volunteer and professional tutors. For Grades K-4, after school. Required commitment of one hour a week for a semester. For more information, visit: http://www.eastsidelearningcenter.org/	Kristina Scherber, Coordinator of Volunteers Kristina.Scherber @spps.org 651-793-7364	Fill out an application at: http://eastsidelear ningcenter.org/vol unteer/volunteer- application-form/
Solid Ground* (Recruitment schedule: late August/early September for school year programs and late April/early May for summer programs.)	<ul> <li>Location: 740 York Ave, St Paul, MN 55106</li> <li>Learning and Enrichment Program         One-on-one tutoring in reading skills. Serves K-8         Tuesday, Wednesday, or Thursday, 4:15-5:15pm.         Solid Ground offers programs for homeless and low-income families in suburban Ramsey and         Washington Counties. Volunteers can commit to one afternoon a week.         For more information, visit:         http://www.solidgroundmn.org/proj/volunteer/         Location: East Metro Place         3521 Century Avenue North         White Bear Lake, MN 55110         </li> </ul>	Liz Meyers, Volunteer Program Manager volunteer@solidg roundmn.org 651-773-8401 ext. 116	Fill out an application at: http://www.solidg roundmn.org/proj/ volunteer/ or contact Liz Meyers, Volunteer Program Manager volunteer@solidg roundmn.org 651-773-8401 ext. 116
Urban Battle*	Urban Battle Tutoring Program is an academic tutoring program for children in grades 1-12. This program is free of charge to any child who has the desire to learn. It is designed to help children who are behind academically, socially and maybe have poor attitudes. The program deals with all three of these problems simultaneously, while placing major emphasis on academics. The program tries to build	Amanda Jacobson, Staff Coordinator amandamjacobso n@gmail.com or	Fill out an application at: http://sprocketssai ntpaul.org/progra m-finder/urban- battle-tutoring- program them the belief that they have value. Presently, the program meets from 6:30 to 8:30pm on Monday and Tuesday evenings.Director hobsranch01@ ya hos.com 651-483-5246Dr. Geeta Vora getavora52@ yah o.com 763-780-8837For more information, visit: http://sprocketssainpaul.org/program.finder/urban- battle-tutoring-programorDr. Geeta Vora getavora52@ yah o.com 763-780-8837Common Bond*Become an academic mentor or tutor for youth at CommonBond Communities affordable housing in Minneapolis, St. Paul, or the surrounding suburbs. CommonBond has many sites in many neighborhoods, and their programs serve youth from pre-k through high school graduation and into young adulthood. Programs are after school, in the aftermoons and evenings, right where students live. CommonBond focuses on closing the achievement gap and supporting yout toward high school graduation with 11 tutoring and mentoring, drop-in bomework centers, small-group leaming and social development supported by experienced staff and a strong network of volunteers. You'll love the feeling of making a positive impact and creating new relationships.For more information, visit: http://www.commonbond.or ifgFor low and adultion works hard to support volunteers through orientation, visit: http://www.commonbond.org/volunteer.aspxFor more information, visit: http://www.commonbond.org/volunteer.aspxFor more information, visit: http://www.commonbond.org/volunteer.aspxIntreeSixtyThreeSixty Journalism offers high school students building. CommonBond works hard to support volunteers through orientation, visit: http://www.commonbond.org/volunteer.aspxChad Caruthers, building. CommonBond works hard to support volunteers and othere menotify high school stud		the individual child's self-confidence and instill in	Bob Kohl,	or contact program meets from 6:30 to 8:30pm on Monday and Tuesday evenings.bostanch61@ya hoscom 631-483-5246Dr. Geeta Vora geetavora52@yah do.com 763-780-8837For more information, visit: http://sproketssaintpaul.org/program. battle-tutoring-programorDr. Geeta Vora geetavora52@yah do.com 763-780-8837Common Bond*Econe an academic mentor or tutor for youth at CommonBond As many sites in many neipbothoods, and their programs serve youth from pre-K through high school graduation and into young adulthood. Programs are after school, in the after school graduation and into young adulthood. Programs are after school, in the aftermoons and evenings, right where students live. CommonBond focuses on closing the achievement gap and supporting youth toward high school graduation with 1:1 tuoring and mentoring, drop-in homework centers, small-group learning and social development supported by experienced staff and a strong network of volunteers. You'll love the feeling of making a positive impact and creating new relationships. Study Budies (Current needs): Volunteers get matched 1:1 with a student who they meet with noce per week for a minimum of one year. The goal is academic advancement, which CommonBond works to achieve through turbing and mentoring with specific support for literacy skill building. CommonBond works hard to support volunteers get matched 1:1 with a student who they meet twith once per week for a minimum of one year. The goal is academic advancement, which CommonBond works to achieve through turbing and mentoring with specific support for literacy skill building. CommonBond works hard to support volunteer approximation, visit: http://www.dmenton. http://www.dmenton. st. Thomas, St. Paul campus. Media profesionals and oher mentors provide instru			,	or contact

Tuesday evenings.hoc.com (51-88-5246)centword52@yah (oc.com (51-88-5246)For more information, visit: http://sprocketssaintpaul.org/program -finder/urban- battle-tutoring-programnot.com (51-88-5246)centword52@yah (oc.m (763-780-8837)Common Bond*Become an academic mentor or tutor for youth at CommonBond has many sites in many neighborhoods, and their programs serve youth from pre-K through high school graduation and into young adulthood / Programs are after school, in the afternoons and evenings, right where students live. CommonBond focuses on closing the achievement gap and supporting youth toward high school graduation with 1:1 tutoring and mentoring, drop-in homework centers, small-group learning and social development supported by experienced staff and a strong network of volunteers. You'll hove the feeling of making a positive impact and creating new relationships.Fill out an application at: http://commonbond.or grStudy Buddies (Current needs): Volunteers through orientation, training, coaching and site based academic interventionists.For more information, visit: http://www.commonbond.org/volunteer.aspxFill out an application at: http://www.commonbond.org/volunteer.aspxThreeSixtyThreeSixty Journalism offers high school students both residential and non-residential summer camps as well as school-year programming at the University of St. Thomas, St. Paul campus. Media professionals and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and speech skills, as well as develop iournalism skills and college readinees.Chad Canuthers, fill out an application at: http://www.threes study suddies (Current leds): Volunteers through orientation, training, coaching and si				Dr. Geeta Vora
For more information, visit: http://sprocketsaaiutpaul.org/program-finder/urban- battle-tutoing-programor763-780-8837Common Bond*Become an academic mentor or tutor for youth at CommonBond Communities affordable housing in Minneapolis, St. Paul, Minnesoia S5103Dr. Geeta Vora geetavor32@yah oo.com 763-780-8837Fill out an application at: http://commonbond gentavora restina_Kithinji, Volunteer fristina_Kithinji, Q-pegaus.webal graduation with 1:1 tutoring and mentoring, drop-in homework centers, small-group learning and social development supported by experienced staff and a strong network of volunteers. You! Il ove the feeling of making a positive impact and creating new relationships.Fill out an application at: http://commonbond. g 651-291-6226Fill out an application.asp or contactThreeSixtyThreeSixty Journalism offers high school students both residential and non-residential summer camps as well as school-year programming at the University of St. Thomas, St. Paul campus. Media professional and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and speech skills, as well as develop iournalism skills and college readmess.Chad Caruthers, Executive Director the date professional chad caruthers.Fill out an application.aspThreeSixtyThreeSixty Journalism offers high school students both residential and non-residential summer camps as well as school-year programming at the University of St. Thomas, St. Paul campus. Media professional and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and speech skills, as well as developChad Caruthers, Executive Director chad Caruthers, St. Paul campus. Media professional and other mentors provide inst			· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	geetavora52@yah http://sprocketssaintpaul.org/program-finder/urban- halle-tutoring-programor• Location: Berean Church, 441 Rice Street in St. Paul, Minnesota 55103Dr. Geeta Vora geetavora52@yah o.com 763-780-8837Common Bond*Become an academic mentor or tutor for youth at CommonBond Communities affordable housing in Minneapolis, St. Paul, or the surrounding suburbs. CommonBond Communities affordable housing in meiphobroods, and their programs serve youth from pre-K through high school graduation and into young adulthood. Programs are after school, in the afternoons and evenings, right where students live. CommonBond focuses on closing the achievement gap and supporting youth toward high school graduation with 1:1 tutoring and mentoring, drop-in homework centers, small-group learning and social development supported by experienced staff and a strong network of volunteers. You'll love the feeling of making a positive impact and creating new relationships. Study Buddies (Current needs); Volunteers get matched 1:1 with a student who they meet with once per week for a minimum of one year. The goal is academic interventionists.Chad Caruthers, For more information, visit: http://www.commonbond.org/volunteer.aspx • Location: Throughout the Metro AreaChad Caruthers, Executive Director they weel with specific support for literacy skill building. Commonbond.org/volunteer.aspx • Location: Throughout the Metro AreaChad Caruthers, Executive Director and school space shills, swell as develop iornalism skills and college readines.Chad Caruthers, Executive Director and chad caruthers@s titty/www.toreamonbond.org/volunteer.aspx titty/www.toreamonbond.org/volunteer.aspx well as school-year programming at the University of St. Thomas, St. Paul campus. Media prof			651-483-5246	oo.com battle-futoring-programDr. Geeta Vora geetavora52@vah oo.com 763-780-8837Common Bond*Become an academic mentor or tutor for youth at CommonBond Communities affordable housing in Minneapolis, St. Paul, or the surrounding suburbs. CommonBond has many sites in many neighborhoods, and their programs serve youth from pre-K trough high school graduation and into young adulthood. Programs are after school, in the afternoons and evenings, right where students live. CommonBond focuses on closing the achievement gap and supporting youth toward high school graduation with 1:1 tutoring and mentoring, drop-in homework centers, small-group learning and social development supported by experienced staff and a strong network of volunteers. Yolunteers get matched 1:1 with a student who they meet with once per week for a minimum of one year. The goal is academic advancement, which CommonBond works to achieve through tutoring and ste-based academic interventionists.Chad Caruthers, Eill out an application.asp e 51-291-6226Fill out an application.aspThreeSixtyThreeSixty Journalism offers high school students of th residential and non-residential summer camps as well as school-year programming at the University of St. Thomas, St. Paul campus. Media professionals and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and specific support for literacy skills and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and specific support sporessionals and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and specific support for sporessionals and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and specific support professionals and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and specific support for sporessionals other sect				763-780-8837
Image: Common Bond*Decision: Berean Church, 441 Rice Street in St. Paul, Minnesota 55103Dr. Geeta Vora getavora52@ yah 000000 763-780-8837Common Bond*Become an academic mentor or turo for youth at CommonBond Communities affordable housing in Minneapolis, St. Paul, or the surrounding suburbs. CommonBond has many sites in many neighborhoods, and their programs serve youth from pre-K through high school graduation and into young adulthood. Programs are after school, in the afternoons and evenings, right where students live. CommonBond focuses on closing the achievement gap and supporting yout howard high school graduation with 1:1 tutoring and mentoring, drop-in homework centers, small-group learning and social development supported by experienced staff and a strong network of volunteers. You'll love the feeling of making a positive impact and creating new relationships. Study Buddies (Current needs): Volunteers get matched 1:1 with a student who they meet with once per week for a minimum of one year. The goal is academic interventionists.Dr. Geeta Vora get matched 1:1 with a student who they met with once per week for a minimum of one year. The goal is academic interventionists.Dr. Geeta Vora yean Kristina Kithinji @commonBond works hard to support of literacy skill building. CommonBond owrks hard to support volunteers through origonal and non-residential summer camps as well as school-year programming at the University of St. Thomas, St. Paul campus. Media professionals and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and speech skills, as well as develop journalism skills and college readiness.Chad Caruthers, Executive Director chad caruthers@si thomas.edu forthomas.Fill out an application at: http://www.dirnees ix			or
• Location: Berean Church, 441 Rice Street in St. Paul, Minnesota 55103geetavora52@yah oo.com 763-780-8837Common Bond*Become an academic mentor or tutor for youth at CommonBond Communities affordable housing in Minneapolis, St. Paul, or the surrounding subtract meighborhoods, and their programs serve youth from pre-K through high school graduation and into young adulthood. Programs are after school, in the aftermoons and evenings, right where students live. CommonBond focuses on closing the achievement gap and supporting youth loward high school graduation with 1:1 tutoring and mentoring, drop-in homework centers, small-group learning and social development supported by experienced staff and a strong network of volunteers. You'll love the feeling of making a positive impact and creating new relationships.Fill out an application.asp application.aspStudy Buddies (Current needs): Volunteers get matched 1:1 with a student who they meet with once per week for a minimum of one year. The goal is academic advancement, which CommonBond works to achieve through tutoring and mentoring with specific support for literacy skill building. CommonBond works to achieve through tutoring and mentoring with specific support for literacy skill building. CommonBond works to achieve through tutoring and site-based academic interventionists.Chad Caruthers, Evecutive birector thus, St. Paul campus. Media professional and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and speech skills, as well as develop journalism skills and college readines.Chad Caruthers, Evecutive birector chad caruthers@ tityjournalism.org youlneersFill out an application at: http://www.threes tyjournalism.org		battle-tutoring-program
St. Paul, Minnesota 55103on.com 763-780-8837Common Bond*Become an academic mentor or tutor for youth at CommonBond Communities affordable housing in Minneapolis, St. Paul, or the surrounding suburbs. CommonBond has many sites in many neighborhoods, and their programs serve youth from pre-K through high school graduation and into young adulthood. Programs are after school, in the afternoons and evenings, right where students live. CommonBond locures on closing the achievement gap and supporting youth toward high school graduation with 1:1 tutoring and mentoring, drop-in homework centers, small-group learning and social development supported by experienced staff and a strong network of volunteers. You'll love the feeling of making a positive impact and creating new relationships. Study Buddies (Current needs): Volunteers get matched 1:1 with a student who they meet with once per week for a minimum of one year. The goal is academic advancement, which CommonBond works hard to support volunteer sthrough orientation, training, coaching and site-based academic interventionists.Chad Caruthers, Evective Director stile Still building. CommonBond works hard to support volunteer sthrough orientation, training, coaching and site-based academic interventionists.Fill out an application at: http://www.commonbond.org/volunteer.aspx • Location: Throughout the Metro AreaFill out an application at: http://www.threes ixtyiournalism offers high school students bir tork residential and non-residential summer campas and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and speech skills, as well as develop journalism skills and college readines.Chad Caruthers, Executive Director dat caruthers@s thomas.sedu 651.962.5282Fill out an application at: h
Common Bond*Become an academic mentor or tutor for youth at CommonBond Communities affordable housing in Minneapolis, St. Paul, or the surrounding suburbs. CommonBond has many sites in many neighborhoods, and their programs serve youth from pre-K through high school graduation and into young adulthood. Programs are after school, in the aftermoons and evenings, right where students live. CommonBond focuses on closing the achievement gap and supporting youth toward high school graduation with 1:1 tutoring and mentoring, drop-in homework centers, small-group learning and social development supported by experienced staff and a strong network of volunteers. You'll love the feeling of making a positive impact and creating new relationships. Study Buddies (Current needs): Volunteers get matched 1:1 with a student who they meet with once per week for a minimum of one year. The goal is academic advancement, which CommonBond works to achieve shord to support volunteers through orientation, training, coaching and site-based academic interventionists.Chad Caruthers, Executive birector study Buddies (Current needs): Volunteer stronghout the Metro AreaFill out an application at: http://www.commonbond.org/volunteer.aspx . Location: Throughout the Metro AreaFill out an application at: http://www.threes ixityiournalism offers high school students birector study Buddies (Current needs): well as school-year programming at the University of St. Thomas, St. Paul campus. Media professional and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and speech skills, as well as develop journalism skills and college readiness.Fill out an application at: http://www.threes ixityiournalism.org /volunteers
Common Bond*Become an academic mentor or tutor for youth at CommonBond Communities affordable housing in Minneapolis, St. Paul campus. Media professional adulthod. Programs are starts school, in the afternoons and evenings, right where students live. CommonBond focuses on closing the achievement gap and supporting youth toward high school graduation with 1:1 tutoring and mentoring, drop-in homework centers, small-group learning and sourcement, which CommonBond works to achieve through tutoring and metorships. Study Buddies (Current needs): Volunteer study on commonBond works to achieve skill, astedemic atvancement, which CommonBond works to achieve through tutoring and ste-based academic interventionists.Kristina Kithinji, Weinterst through orientation, training, coaching and ste-based academic interventionists.Fill out an application at: http://commonbond.or rg G51-291-6226ThreeSixtyThreeSixty Journalism offers high school students both residential and non-residential summer camps as and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and speech skills, as well as develop journalism skills and college readiness.Chad Caruthers, Executive Director thomas.edu 651-292-6226Fill out an application at: http://www.teress training.coaching and and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and speech skills, as well as develop journalism skills and college readiness.Kristina Kithinji, development supporting the University of training, coaching and dote readines.Fill out an application at: http://www.teress to coation: Throughout the Metro AreaThreeSixtyThreeSixty Journalism offers high school students both residential and non-residential summer camps and other mentors provide instruc		St. Paul, Minnesota 55103
Bond*CommonBond Communities affordable housing in Minneapolis, St. Paul, or the surrounding suburbs. CommonBond has many sites in many neighborhoods, and their programs serve youth from pre-K through high school graduation and into young adulthood. Programs are after school, in the aftermoons and evenings, right where students live. CommonBond focuses on closing the achievement gap and supporting youth toward high school graduation with 1:1 tutoring and mentoring, drop-in homework centers, small-group learning and social development supported by experienced staff and a strong network of volunteers. Yolunteer get matched 1:1 with a student who they meet with once per week for a minimum of one year. The goal is academic advancement, which CommonBond works to achieve through tutoring and mentoring with specific support for literacy skill building. CommonBond.org/volunteer.aspxVolunteer termonBond vorks to achieve through tutoring and mentoring at the University of St. Thomas, St. Paul campus. Media professionals and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and speech skilk, as well as develop journalism skills and college readiness.Chad Caruthers, Exist a Still out an application at: http://www.threes ixtyjournalism.Fill out an application at: http://www.threes ixtyjournalism.				1 2'11
Minneapolis, St. Paul, or the surrounding suburbs. CommonBond has many sites in many neighborbods, and their programs serve youth from pre-K through high school graduation and into young adulthood. Programs are after school, in the afternoons and evenings, right where students live. CommonBond focuses on closing the achievement gap and supporting youth toward high school graduation with 1:1 tutoring and mentoring, drop-in homework centers, small-group learning and social development supported by experienced staff and a strong network of volunteers. You'll love the feeling of making a positive impact and creating new relationships. Study Buddies (Current needs): Volunteers get matched 1:1 with a student who they meet with once per week for a minimum of one year. The goal is academic advancement, which CommonBond works hard to support volunteers through orientation, training, coaching and site-based academic interventionists.Manager Kristina Kithinji @commohbond.or fgFor more information, visit: http://www.commonbond.org/volunteer.aspx well as school-year programming at the University of St. Thomas, St. Paul campus. Media professionals and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and speech skills, as well as develop journalism skills and college readiness.Chad Caruthers, Eill out an application at: http://wuw.threes ixtyjournalism.org /volunteers		•
CommonBond has many sites in many neighborhoods, and their programs serve youth from pre-K through high school graduation and into young adulthood. Programs are after school, in the afternoons and evenings, right where students live. CommonBond focuses on closing the achievement gap and supporting youth toward high school graduation with 1:1 tutoring and mentoring, drop-in homework centers, small-group learning and social development supported by experienced staff and a strong network of volunteers. You'll love the feeling of making a positive impact and creating new relationships. Study Buddies (Current needs): Volunteers get matched 1:1 with a student who they meet with once per week for a minimum of one year. The goal is academic indravent, which CommonBond works to achieve through tutoring and mentoring with specific support for literacy skill building. CommonBond.org/volunteer.aspxKristina Kithinji @commonBond.orgd2.pegasus.webal @com/volunteer application.aspThreeSixty• Location: Throughout the Metro AreaChad Caruthers, Executive Director chad.caruthers@c thomas.eduFill out an application at: http://www.threes ixtyjournalism offers high school students and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and speech skills, as well as develop journalism skills and college readiness.Chad Caruthers, Executive Director chad.caruthers@c thomas.eduFill out an application at: http://www.threes ixtyjournalism.skills and college readiness.	Bona* neighborhoods, and their programs serve youth from pre-K through high school graduation and into young adulthood. Programs are after school, in the afternoons and evenings, right where students live. CommonBond focuses on closing the achievement gap and supporting youth toward high school graduation with 1:1 tutoring and mentoring, drop-in homework centers, small-group learning and social development supported by experienced staff and a strong network of volunteers. You'll love the feeling of making a positive impact and creating new relationships. Study Buddies (Current needs): Volunteers get matched 1:1 with a student who they meet with once per week for a minimum of one year. The goal is academic advancement, which CommonBond works to achieve through tutoring and nentoring with specific support for literacy skill building. CommonBond.org/volunteer.aspxChad Caruthers, Executive Director chad.caruthers@sFill out an application at: http://www.commonbond.org/volunteer.aspx a vell as school-year programming at the University of St. Thomas, St. Paul campus. Media professionals and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and speech skills, as well as develop journalism skills and college readines.Chad Caruthers, Executive Director chad.caruthers@s ixtyjournalism.skills and college readines.Chad Caruthers, Executive Director chad.caruthers@s ixtyjournalism.skills and college readines.For an enhore study application at: http://www.threes ixtyjournalism.skills and college readines.Chad Caruthers, Executive Director chad.caruthers@s ixtyjournalism.skills and college readines.Chad Caruthers, Executive Director chad.caruthers@s ixtyjournalism.skills and college readines.For an enhore stuppication at: http://www.threes <br< th=""><th></th><th>1 0 0</th><th>e e</th><th></th></br<>		1 0 0	e e
pre-K through high school graduation and into young adulthood. Programs are after school, in the afternoons and evenings, right where students live. CommonBond focuses on closing the achievement gap and supporting youth toward high school graduation with 1:1 tutoring and mentoring, drop-in homework centers, small-group learning and social development supported by experienced staff and a strong network of volunteers. You'll love the feeling of making a positive impact and creating new relationships.relationshipapplication aspStudy Buddies (Current needs): Volunteers get matched 1:1 with a student who they meet with once per week for a minimum of one year. The goal is academic advancement, which CommonBond works to achieve through tutoring and mentoring with specific support for literacy skill building. CommonBond.org/volunteer.aspxChad Caruthers, ExecutiveFill out an application at: http://www.threes ixtyjournalism offers high school students both residential and non-residential summer camps as well as school-year programming at the University of St. Thomas, St. Paul campus. Media professionals and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and speech skills, as well as school-year programming at the University ojurnatism skills and college readines.Chad Caruthers, Executive bit prector schule as chool-year programming at the University of st. Thomas, St. Paul campus. Media professionals and other mentors provide instruction to enhance pournalism skills and college readines.Chad Caruthers, esti-stageFill out an application at: http://www.threes ixtyjournalism.org toylounteers		• adulthood. Programs are after school, in the afternoons and evenings, right where students live. CommonBond focuses on closing the achievement gap and supporting youth toward high school graduation with 1:1 tutoring and mentoring, drop-in homework centers, small-group learning and social development supported by experienced staff and a strong network of volunteers. You'll love the feeling of making a positive impact and creating new relationships. Study Buddies (Current needs): Volunteers get matched 1:1 with a student who they meet with once per week for a minimum of one year. The goal is academic advancement, which CommonBond works to achieve through tutoring and mentoring with specific support for literacy skill building. CommonDond.org/volunteer.aspxChad Caruthers, Executive Director chad caruthers, Executive Director st. Thomas, St. Paul campus. Media professionals and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and speech skills, as well as develop journalism skills and college readines.Chad Caruthers, Executive Director chad.caruthers. Executive Director chad.caruthers. St. Thomas, St. Paul campus. Media professionals and other mentors provide instruction to enhance yournalism skills and college readines.Chad Caruthers, Executive Director chad.caruthers. St. 15.062.5282Fill out an application at: http://www.threes ixtyjournalism.org ixtyjournalism skills and college readines.
afternoons and evenings, right where students live. CommonBond focuses on closing the achievement gap and supporting youth toward high school graduation with 1:1 tutoring and mentoring, drop-in homework centers, small-group learning and social development supported by experienced staff and a strong network of volunteers. You'll love the feeling of making a positive impact and creating new relationships. Study Buddies (Current needs): Volunteers get matched 1:1 with a student who they meet with once per week for a minimum of one year. The goal is academic advancement, which CommonBond works to achieve through tutoring and mentoring with specific support for literacy skill building. Commonbond.org/volunteer.aspxChad Caruthers, Executive Director chad.caruthers@sFill out an application at: http://www.threes ixtyournalism offers high school students both residential and non-residential summer camps as well as school-year programming at the University of St. Thomas, St. Paul campus. Media professionals and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and speech skills, as well as develop journalism skills and college readines.Chad Caruthers, chad.caruthers@sFill out an application at: http://www.threes ixtyjournalism.org tubula school-year programming at the University of St. Thomas, St. Paul campus. Media professionals and other mentors provide instruction to enhance pjournalism skills and college readines.Chad Caruthers, g51.962.5282Fill out an application at: http://www.threes ixtyjournalism.org tubula school-year programming at the University of pjournalism skills and college readines.Chad Caruthers g51.962.5282Fill out an application at: http://www.threes CommonBond focuses on closing the achievement gap and supporting youth toward high school graduation with 1:1 tutoring and mentoring, drop-in homework centers, small-group learning and social development supported by experienced staff and a strong network of volunteers. You'll love the feeling of making a positive impact and creating new relationships.Kristina Kithinji, Volunteer Manager Kristina.Kithinji @commonbond.o rgStudy Buddies (Current needs): Volunteers get matched 1:1 with a student who they meet with once per week for a minimum of one year. The goal is academic advancement, which CommonBond works to achieve through tutoring and mentoring with specific support for literacy skill building. Commonbond.org/volunteer.aspx651-291-6226ThreeSixtyThreeSixty Journalism offers high school students both residential and non-residential summer camps as well as school-year programming at the University of St. Thomas, St. Paul campus. Media professionals and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and speech skills, as well as develop journalism skills and college readiness.Chad Caruthers, Executive Director chad.caruthers@s thomas.edu (51.962.5282Fill out an application at: http://www.threes ixtyjournalism.org /volunteers		6		or contact gap and supporting youth toward high school graduation with 1:1 tutoring and mentoring, drop-in homework centers, small-group learning and social development supported by experienced staff and a development supported by experienced staff and a strong network of volunteers. You'll love the feeling of making a positive impact and creating new relationships. Study Buddies (Current needs): Volunteers get matched 1:1 with a student who they meet with once per week for a minimum of one year. The goal is academic advancement, which CommonBond works to achieve through tutoring and mentoring with specific support for literacy skill building. CommonBond works hard to support volunteers through orientation, training, coaching and site-based academic interventionists.Chad Caruthers, Executive Director chad caruthers(es) EXILYFill out an application at: http://www.chrees ixtyjournalism offers high school students both residential and non-residential summer camps as well as school-year programming at the University of St. Thomas, St. Paul campus. Media professionals and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and speech skills, as well as develop journalism skills and college readiness.Chad Caruthers, Executive Director chad caruthers(es) ithomas.eduFill out an application at: http://www.threes ixtyjournalism.org graduation with 1:1 tutoring and mentoring, drop-in homework centers, small-group learning and social development supported by experienced staff and a strong network of volunteers. You'll love the feeling of making a positive impact and creating new relationships. Study Buddies (Current needs): Volunteers get matched 1:1 with a student who they meet with once per week for a minimum of one year. The goal is academic advancement, which CommonBond works to achieve through tutoring and mentoring with specific support for literacy skill building. CommonBond works hard to support volunteers through orientation, training, coaching and site-based academic interventionists.Chad Caruthers, Executive Director chad caruthers(es) type: through orientatian and non-residential summer camps as well as school-year programming at the University of St. Thomas, St. Paul campus. Media professionals and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and speech skills, as well as develop journalism skills and college readiness.Chad Caruthers, Executive Director chad, caruthers(es) thomas.eduFill out an application at: http://www.threes ixtyjournalism.org		-		Kristina Kithinji, homework centers, small-group learning and social development supported by experienced staff and a strong network of volunteers. You'll love the feeling of making a positive impact and creating new relationships.Manager Kristina.Kithinji @commoband.o rgStudy Buddies (Current needs): Volunteers get matched 1:1 with a student who they meet with once per week for a minimum of one year. The goal is academic advancement, which CommonBond works to achieve through tutoring and mentoring with specific support for literacy skill building. CommonBond works hard to support volunteers through orientation, training, coaching and site-based academic interventionists.Chad Caruthers, ExecutiveFill out an application at: http://www.commonbond.org/volunteer.aspxThreeSixtyThreeSixty Journalism offers high school students both residential and non-residential summer camps as well as school-year programming at the University of St. Thomas, St. Paul campus. Media professionals and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and speech skills, as well as develop journalism skills and college readiness.Chad Caruthers, chad.caruthers@s tithomas.eduFill out an application at: http://www.threes ixtyjournalism.org /volunteers		graduation with 1:1 tutoring and mentoring, drop-in		Volunteer strong network of volunteers. You'll love the feeling of making a positive impact and creating new relationships. Study Buddies (Current needs): Volunteers get matched 1:1 with a student who they meet with once per week for a minimum of one year. The goal is academic advancement, which CommonBond works to achieve through tutoring and mentoring with specific support for literacy skill building. CommonBond works hard to support volunteers through orientation, training, coaching and site-based academic interventionists.@commonBond.o rgFor more information, visit: http://www.commonbond.org/volunteer.aspx• Location: Throughout the Metro AreaFill out an application at: http://www.threes ixty Journalism offers high school students both residential and non-residential summer camps as well as school-year programming at the University of St. Thomas, St. Paul campus. Media professionals and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and speech skills, as well as develop journalism skills and college readiness.Chad Caruthers, Executive Director chad.caruthers@s thomas.eduFill out an application at: http://www.threes ixtyjournalism.org /volunteers		homework centers, small-group learning and social		Manager of making a positive impact and creating new relationships. Study Buddies (Current needs): Volunteers get matched 1:1 with a student who they meet with once per week for a minimum of one year. The goal is academic advancement, which CommonBond works to achieve through tutoring and mentoring with specific support for literacy skill building. CommonBond works hard to support volunteers through orientation, training, coaching and site-based academic interventionists.rg 651-291-6226For more information, visit: http://www.commonbond.org/volunteer.aspx• Location: Throughout the Metro AreaFill out an application at: http://www.threes ixtyjournalism offers high school students both residential and non-residential summer camps as well as school-year programming at the University of St. Thomas, St. Paul campus. Media professionals and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and speech skills, as well as develop journalism skills and college readiness.Chad Caruthers, Executive Director chad.caruthers@s ithomas.eduFill out an application at: http://www.threes ixtyjournalism.org /volunteers		development supported by experienced staff and a		Kristina.Kithinji relationships. Study Buddies (Current needs): Volunteers get matched 1:1 with a student who they meet with once per week for a minimum of one year. The goal is academic advancement, which CommonBond works to achieve through tutoring and mentoring with specific support for literacy skill building. CommonBond works hard to support volunteers through orientation, training, coaching and site-based academic interventionists.651-291-6226For more information, visit: http://www.commonbond.org/volunteer.aspx•••Location: Throughout the Metro AreaChad Caruthers, Executive Director chad.caruthers@sFill out an application at: http://www.threes ixtyjournalism.org /volunteers and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and speech skills, as well as develop journalism skills and college readiness.Chad Caruthers, Executive Director chad.caruthers@sFill out an application at: http://www.threes ixtyjournalism.org /volunteers				@commonbond.o
Study Buddies (Current needs): Volunteers get matched 1:1 with a student who they meet with once per week for a minimum of one year. The goal is academic advancement, which CommonBond works to achieve through tutoring and mentoring with specific support for literacy skill building. CommonBond works hard to support volunteers through orientation, training, coaching and site-based academic interventionists.For more information, visit: http://www.commonbond.org/volunteer.aspxFor more information, visit: http://www.commonbond.org/volunteer.aspxChad Caruthers, Executive Director chad.caruthers, Executive Director chad.caruthers@s ittp://www.threes ixtyjournalism offers high school students soft residential and non-residential summer camps as well as school-year programming at the University of St. Thomas, St. Paul campus. Media professionals and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and speech skills, as well as develop journalism skills and college readiness.Chad Caruthers, Executive Director chad.caruthers@s itthomas.eduFill out an application at: http://www.threes /volunteers Volunteers get matched 1:1 with a student who they meet with once per week for a minimum of one year. The goal is academic advancement, which CommonBond works to achieve through tutoring and mentoring with specific support for literacy skill building. CommonBond works hard to support volunteers through orientation, training, coaching and site-based academic interventionists.Image: CommonBond works hard to support volunteers through orientation, training, coaching and site-based academic interventionists.For more information, visit: http://www.commonbond.org/volunteer.aspxImage: Chad Caruthers, ExecutiveFill out an application at: http://www.tees ixtyjournalism offers high school students both residential and non-residential summer camps as well as school-year programming at the University of St. Thomas, St. Paul campus. Media professionals and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and speech skills, as well as develop journalism skills and college readiness.Chad Caruthers, Executive bilite condition teenhance (st. 1000000000000000000000000000000000000		-		651-291-6226 meet with once per week for a minimum of one year. The goal is academic advancement, which CommonBond works to achieve through tutoring and mentoring with specific support for literacy skill building. CommonBond works hard to support volunteers through orientation, training, coaching and site-based academic interventionists.Image: CommonBond works hard to support volunteers through orientation, training, coaching and site-based academic interventionists.For more information, visit: http://www.commonbond.org/volunteer.aspxImage: CommonBond worksFor more information, visit: http://www.tereesThreeSixtyThreeSixty Journalism offers high school students both residential and non-residential summer camps as well as school-year programming at the University of St. Thomas, St. Paul campus. Media professionals and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and speech skills, as well as develop journalism skills and college readiness.Chad Caruthers, Executive Director chad.caruthers@es thhomas.edu 651.962.5282Fill out an application at: http://www.threes ixtyjournalism.org /volunteers
The goal is academic advancement, which CommonBond works to achieve through tutoring and mentoring with specific support for literacy skill building. CommonBond works hard to support volunteers through orientation, training, coaching and site-based academic interventionists.Image: CommonBond works hard to support stite http://www.commonbond.org/volunteer.aspxImage: CommonBond works shard to support wolunteers.ThreeSixtyThreeSixty Journalism offers high school students both residential and non-residential summer camps as well as school-year programming at the University of St. Thomas, St. Paul campus. Media professionals and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and speech skills, as well as develop journalism skills and college readiness.Chad Caruthers, Executive Director chad.caruthers@s thomas.eduFill out an application at: http://www.threes ixtyjournalism.org /volunteers CommonBond works to achieve through tutoring and mentoring with specific support for literacy skill building. CommonBond works hard to support volunteers through orientation, training, coaching and site-based academic interventionists.Image: CommonBond works hard to support source information, visit: http://www.commonbond.org/volunteer.aspxImage: CommonBond works hard to support wolunteer.aspx• Location: Throughout the Metro AreaChad Caruthers, Executive Director st. Thomas, St. Paul campus. Media professionals and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and speech skills, as well as develop journalism skills and college readiness.Chad Caruthers, Executive Director chad.caruthers@s thomas.eduFill out an application at: http://www.threes ixtyjournalism.org /volunteers		1 mentoring with specific support for literacy skill building. CommonBond works hard to support volunteers through orientation, training, coaching and site-based academic interventionists.Image: CommonBond works hard to support volunteers through orientation, training, coaching and site-based academic interventionists.For more information, visit: http://www.commonbond.org/volunteer.aspx • Location: Throughout the Metro AreaImage: Chad Caruthers, ExecutiveThreeSixtyThreeSixty Journalism offers high school students both residential and non-residential summer camps as well as school-year programming at the University of St. Thomas, St. Paul campus. Media professionals and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and speech skills, as well as develop journalism skills and college readiness.Chad Caruthers, Executive Director chad.caruthers@s thomas.edu 651.962.5282Fill out an application at: http://www.threes ixtyjournalism.org /volunteers building. CommonBond works hard to support volunteers through orientation, training, coaching and site-based academic interventionists.building. CommonBond works hard to support volunteers through orientation, training, coaching and site-based academic interventionists.building. CommonBond works hard to support volunteers through orientation, training, coaching and site-based academic interventionists.building. CommonBond works hard to support volunteers through orientation, training, coaching and site-based academic interventionists.building. CommonBond works hard to support volunteer.aspxbuilding. CommonBond works hard to support volunteer.aspxbuilding. CommonBond works hard to support volunteer.aspxbuilding. CommonBond works hard to support volunteer.aspxcommonBond works hard to support volunteer.aspxcommonBond works hard to support volunteer.aspxcommonBond works hard to support volunteer.aspxcommonBond works hard to support volunteers, the support both residential and non-residential summer camps as well as school-year programming at the University of St. Thomas, St. Paul campus. Media professionals and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and speech skills, as well as develop journalism skills and college readiness.Chad Caruthers, Executive Director chad.caruthers@s thomas.edu 651.962.5282Fill out an application at: http://www.threes ixtyjournalism.org /volunteers		• • volunteers through orientation, training, coaching and site-based academic interventionists.volunteers through orientation, training, coaching and site-based academic interventionists.For more information, visit: http://www.commonbond.org/volunteer.aspx.• Location: Throughout the Metro Area.ThreeSixtyThreeSixty Journalism offers high school students both residential and non-residential summer camps as well as school-year programming at the University of St. Thomas, St. Paul campus. Media professionals and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and speech skills, as well as develop journalism skills and college readiness.Chad Caruthers Executive Director chad.caruthers@s thomas.edu 651.962.5282Fill out an application at: http://www.threes ixtyjournalism.org /volunteers		• • • •
site-based academic interventionists.For more information, visit: http://www.commonbond.org/volunteer.aspx• Location: Throughout the Metro AreaThreeSixtyThreeSixty Journalism offers high school students both residential and non-residential summer camps as well as school-year programming at the University of St. Thomas, St. Paul campus. Media professionals and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and speech skills, as well as develop journalism skills and college readiness.Chad Caruthers, Executive Director chad.caruthers@s tthomas.edu 651.962.5282Fill out an application at: http://www.threes ixtyjournalism.org /volunteers		•
For more information, visit: http://www.commonbond.org/volunteer.aspxImage: Common boxImage: Common box• Location: Throughout the Metro Area• Location: Throughout the Metro AreaFill out an application at: both residential and non-residential summer camps as well as school-year programming at the University of St. Thomas, St. Paul campus. Media professionals and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and speech skills, as well as develop journalism skills and college readiness.Chad Caruthers, Executive Director chad.caruthers@s thomas.edu 651.962.5282Fill out an application at: http://www.threes ixtyjournalism.org /volunteers http://www.commonbond.org/volunteer.aspxhttp://www.commonbond.org/volunteer.aspx• Location: Throughout the Metro Area- Location: Throughout the Metro AreaThreeSixtyThreeSixty Journalism offers high school students both residential and non-residential summer camps as well as school-year programming at the University of St. Thomas, St. Paul campus. Media professionals and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and speech skills, as well as develop journalism skills and college readiness.Chad Caruthers, Executive Director chad.caruthers@s thomas.edu 651.962.5282Fill out an application at: http://www.threes ixtyjournalism.org /volunteers
http://www.commonbond.org/volunteer.aspxhttp://www.commonbond.org/volunteer.aspx• Location: Throughout the Metro Area- Location: Throughout the Metro AreaThreeSixtyThreeSixty Journalism offers high school students both residential and non-residential summer camps as well as school-year programming at the University of St. Thomas, St. Paul campus. Media professionals and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and speech skills, as well as develop journalism skills and college readiness.Chad Caruthers, Executive Director chad.caruthers@s thomas.edu 651.962.5282Fill out an application at: http://www.threes ixtyjournalism.org /volunteers		For more information, visit:
<ul> <li>Location: Throughout the Metro Area</li> <li>ThreeSixty Journalism offers high school students both residential and non-residential summer camps as well as school-year programming at the University of St. Thomas, St. Paul campus. Media professionals and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and speech skills, as well as develop journalism skills and college readiness.</li> <li>Chad Caruthers, Executive Director chad.caruthers@s ixtyjournalism.org /volunteers</li> </ul> ThreeSixtyThreeSixty Journalism offers high school students both residential and non-residential summer camps as well as school-year programming at the University of St. Thomas, St. Paul campus. Media professionals and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and speech skills, as well as develop journalism skills and college readiness.Chad Caruthers, Executive Director chad.caruthers@s tthomas.edu 651.962.5282Fill out an application at: http://www.threes ixtyjournalism.org
both residential and non-residential summer camps as well as school-year programming at the University of St. Thomas, St. Paul campus. Media professionals and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and speech skills, as well as develop journalism skills and college readiness.Executive Director chad.caruthers@s thomas.edu 651.962.5282application at: http://www.threes ixtyjournalism.org /volunteers		Location: Throughout the Metro Area
both residential and non-residential summer camps as well as school-year programming at the University of St. Thomas, St. Paul campus. Media professionals and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and speech skills, as well as develop journalism skills and college readiness.Executive Director chad.caruthers@s thomas.edu 651.962.5282application at: http://www.threes ixtyjournalism.org /volunteers	ThrooSivty	Three Sixty Journalism offers high school students	Chad Caruthara	Fill out an
well as school-year programming at the University of St. Thomas, St. Paul campus. Media professionals and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and speech skills, as well as develop journalism skills and college readiness.Director chad.caruthers@s thomas.edu 651.962.5282http://www.threes ixtyjournalism.org /volunteers	1 III CESIXLY
St. Thomas, St. Paul campus. Media professionals and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and speech skills, as well as develop journalism skills and college readiness.chad.caruthers@s thomas.edu 651.962.5282ixtyjournalism.org /volunteers		- and other mentors provide instruction to enhance reading, writing and speech skills, as well as develop journalism skills and college readiness.tthomas.edu 651.962.5282/volunteers reading, writing and speech skills, as well as develop 651.962.5282 journalism skills and college readiness.
journalism skills and college readiness.		-
Thinkson   Do a probeneor and work with ages 5.5 at   Nachor Lyness,   Contact	Minnesota	Be a preschool aide and work with ages 3-5 at	Rachel Lyness,	Contact

Literacy	learning centers for preschool-age English language	Arlington Hills	Rachel Lyness,
Council –	learns at Open Door Learning Center – Arlington	RLyness@mnliter	Arlington Hills
Open Door	Hills. Commit 2.5 hours once per week, minimum	acy.org	RLyness@mnliter
Learning	three-month commitment.		acy.org
Center
Preschool*	For more information, visit:
	http://mnliteracy.org/volunteers/opportunities/CES • Location: Open Door Learning Center -
	Center- Arlington Hills, 1115 Greenbrier Street, St. Paul, MN.
Good in the	Books in the Hood is a youth reading and literacy	Shawn Morrison,	http://www.goodi
Hood*	club for children grades 1-5. Our vision is to help	Executive	nthehood.org/volu kids become better readers by making reading	Director	nteer.html
(Children's	enjoyable in a fun small group atmosphere with	shawn@goodinth programs are	committed and caring volunteers. Our team of	ehood.org currently full	volunteers receives training in order to provide	952-412-3732 with a waiting	effective literacy mentoring with a personal touch.
list.)	• Location: Lutheran Colportage Services, 2101
	Chicago Ave. S. Mpls, MN 5540

*Confirmed current volunteer needs.

+Location accepts volunteers under 18 years old for some programs. Please check with program for more information.